ANCHOR LINE HAS ASSIGNED.

Big Steamboat Company in Financial Trouble.

ARCHIBALD WOODS ASSIGNEE.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MET AND DECIDED TO WIND UP THE BUSINESS/ AFFAIRS.

ASSETS GIVEN AS $98,600.

One of the Oldest Steamboat Lines on the Mississippi Broken Up by the Loss of Nearly All Its Fleet.

The St. Louis and New Orleans Anchor Line made an assignment Tuesday afternoon to Archibald Woods, conveying to him for the benefit of creditors all of the steamboats, barges, stock in store, elevators, landings and other property of the company of every kind.

An affidavit, signed by Vice-President Melsonier, accompanied the assignment and in it he makes the statement that the assets of the Anchor line are worth $98,600.

There was an attack made upon the credit of the line last week, when the Tennessee River Packet Co. filed an attachment suit for $3,500 and had the Sheriff levy on all the property in the Anchor line store on the levee.

This suit was brought on a claim for rent for two of the Tennessee River boats leased to the Anchor Line. The bill was settled and the goods released by the Sheriff just before the time for the directors' meeting Monday.

All the officers of the company have insisted that the line was in good condition in order to avoid the bringing of suits against the company and the establishment of preferred claims which would complicate matters very much.

The Anchor Line was organized the first year after the war, and it was one of the first trusts or combinations started in the West.

Prior to that time there were short steamboat lines running between St. Louis and Cairo, Cairo and Memphis, and between Vicksburg, Vicksburg and Natchez, and Natchez and New Orleans.

These short lines were all taken into the Anchor Line Co. The small boats unsuitable for the trade were condemned, laid up or sold and new boats were built.

Two lines were started—one between St. Louis and New Orleans. At the various towns along the Mississippi River freight elevators were built, and the other between St. Louis and Memphis and the other between St. Louis and New Orleans. At the various towns along the Mississippi River freight elevators were built, and the other between St. Louis and Memphis and the other between St. Louis and New Orleans.

Between Memphis and St. Louis the patron of the line expected three mails a week and three boats a week and got them.

Between Memphis and New Orleans two through boats a week were expected, and high water or low, they always passed as scheduled. That is why the line has always been so popular with the country merchants and shippers.

The company in years has lost many fine boats by fire and wreck and in some cases the loss of life has been heavy.

But in every case of a boat lost a new and handsomer one has been built and

SHOT DEAD IN A SALOON.

Ed. Toomey Murdered on Franklin Avenue.

ED DILLARD KILLED HIM.

SHOT THROUGH THE BRAIN WHILE BUYING A PACKAGE OF CIGARETTES.

HIS SLAYER HAS ESCAPED.

The Two Men Had Numerous Quarrels Since Saturday and This Shooting Was the Sequel.

A row, which began Sunday in Alex Smith's saloon at 1636 Franklin avenue and was continued Monday afternoon in Pollocks liquor store, northeast corner of Franklin avenue and Fifteenth street, wound up in a murder Tuesday morning in Ernest Beste's saloon, 1636 Franklin avenue.

Ed Dillard shot Ed Toomey and killed him instantly. Dillard then walked coolly to the front door and escaped.

The half dozen witnesses to the murder quietly dispersed, and Beste sent word to

A policeman to have the body of the dead man removed from where it had dropped in the sidewalk in front of the bar.

Toomey entered the saloon at 9:30 o'clock to buy a package of cigarettes. He laid 5 cents on the bar and waited for Beste to come from the rear of the saloon to serve him.

Dillard was seated with his companion at a table near the stove, about twelve feet from where Toomey was standing. The men were reading newspapers. Dillard glanced over the top of his paper and when he saw that the man at the bar was Toomey he tossed the paper aside, jerked a revolver from his pocket and fired. One shot did the business.

Toomey fell like a sack of flour. The bullet entered his head just back of his right ear and he died without speaking a word.

The police department sent out a general alarm, notifying all officers to be on the lookout for Dillard. The fugitive murderer is described in the police report as 28 years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height, weight 180 pounds and dressed in dark clothes, with a brown Fedora hat.

Ernest Beste, the man who knows as much regarding the killing and the causes leading up to it as the murderer, professed utter ignorance of the matter to the newspaper reporters when they questioned him half an hour after the tragedy.

Dillard was a bartender for Beste until three months ago. After he lost his position he has done little else than hang around the neighborhood and drink whenever the can was passed or liquor set in front of him.

Sunday afternoon Dillard and three of his cronies went into Alex Smith's saloon, a few doors from Beste's place, and started a fight, in which George Cunningham, the bartender, was roughly used.

Ed Toomey was Cunningham's friend and was in the saloon at the time of the row. He assisted Cunningham, and received several hard blows. After he was quieted down, Cunningham happened to lay some money on the back bar, a $10 bill in the pile.

Alex Smith is authority for the statement

WOUNDED MAN DISAPPEARED.

Old Austin Moran Supposed to Be Mortally Wounded.

SHOT BY CORMAC COSGROVE.

WITH A BULLET IN HIS STOMACH HE WENT HUNTING A DOCTOR.

WALKED MORE THAN A MILE.

An Attempt to Collect Money From a Man Who Said He Couldn't Pay Results Badly for the Creditor.

Old Austin Moran was shot and probably fatally injured at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning by Cormac Cosgrove, a saloon and grocery keeper at Oak Hill and Junata avenues.

Cosgrove shot but once, the ball lodging in Moran's stomach. Moran then walked out of the saloon and disappeared as completely as if he had evaporated into air.

Moran walked more than a mile after being wounded, stopping finally at the saloon of J. P. O'Neill, his niece's husband, at Arsenal street and Mackinac avenue.

Dr. Felix Garcia was called in and found that the bullet struck a rib, glanced around it and entered the abdomen. Laparotomy was performed and Moran has a slight chance to recover. The physician regarded it as marvellous that a man could walk so far after being wounded as Moran was.

The police were not able to trace his movements, and feared Moran, overstimulating his strength, tried to find a physician and wandered into some strange locality and died without attention.

The shooting was the result of a quarrel about money matters. Mrs. Cosgrove's story is that her husband has owed Moran $100 borrowed money for five years. Tuesday morning Moran called to collect a part of the money, and Cosgrove declared he was unable to pay a cent.

Mrs. Cosgrove is a niece of Moran. Moran, Mrs. Cosgrove says, was armed with a long knife and a revolver and he declared he'd have the money or Cosgrove's life. The two men exchanged threatening words and Moran started towards Cosgrove. The saloon and grocery is a small establishment and at no time during the quarrel were there more than five feet from each other.

As Moran started towards Cosgrove the grocer ducked off and drawing his own revolver fired at his elderly antagonist. Moran turned and staggered out the door.

He threw up his hands and screamed when he was on the sidewalk. To William Hague, an old man who was in the grocery and witnessed the shooting, Moran said he was going to the City Inmate Asylum, which is in the vicinity to have his injuries attended to. Hague says Moran declared he knew one of the asylum doctors and preferred going there rather than to the City Hospital.

An ambulance, which had been called from the South Side Dispensary, was sent back without an occupant as the driver reported no trace of the wounded man.

The police went to the asylum, but no findings of Moran could be learned there. No matter if applied to have a wound dressed, said the asylum authorities. Cosgrove turned the story over to his wife and went out to hunt a policeman and give himself up. He is now held a prisoner at the Mount St. Francis, awaiting the result of the search for Moran.

Moran is 60 years old and lives at the Hindman House, 103 North Third street. He is a plumber.

EXCLUDED FROM THE CHURCH.

Rev. Manary of Terre Haute Let Out by His Church.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-DISPATCH.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Jan. 11.—Rev. N. H. Manary, the Baptist minister who was recently tried by a church council for writing improper letters to Miss Edith Sparks, with whom he was keeping company, has been excluded from the congregation at a meeting of the Oregon Baptist Church. The vote was practically unanimous. This action, however, does not prevent Mr. Manary from holding membership elsewhere nor from preaching. He is now engaged in a revival meeting at Nashville, Ill., and from there will go to Robinson, Ill. His friends insist that the action of the church is in violation of the rules, as the church council extended him forgiveness.

An application for this writ was filed in Division No. 2 about a week ago, on the grounds that that association was duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Colorado.

HANNA WINS IN THE SEPARATE BALLOTS FOR THE SENATORSHIP.

He Received 73 Votes—56 in the House and 17 in the Senate—Enough to Elect Him.

M'KISSON WAS HIS COMPETITOR.

His Vote Was 19 in the Senate and 49 in the House, Making a Total of Only 68, Falling 5 Below the Claims of the Opposition.

SPECIAL TO THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 11.—Hanna seems to have the senatorship. In the separate ballots in each chamber to-day he received a total of 73 votes—enough to elect him if the men who cast them stick to him when the two houses meet to ballot in joint session to-morrow.

In the House Hanna received 56 votes and in the Senate 17. Mayor McKisson of Cleveland, the caucus nominee of the opposition to Hanna, received 68 votes—19 in the Senate and 49 in the House—falling five votes below the claims of the opposition.

The Senate and House both adjourned until 10 o'clock Wednesday. A joint resolution was adopted to meet in joint convention at noon to-morrow to canvass the vote cast to-day for Senator. McKisson had a majority of 2 in the Senate to-day and Hanna of 3 over all. In the House, there was no election de jure, but there was a de facto election. There is nothing to prevent changes to-morrow from the votes of to-day, but none are expected, as the canvass has been so close and thorough.

When the two houses adjourned there was a general stampede for the Neil House to congratulate Senator Hanna on the result.

THE BALLOTS IN SENATE AND HOUSE

The ballot in the House resulted as follows: Hanna, 56; McKisson, 49. For McKisson—Adams, Adkins, Alger, Barlow, Boll, Booth, Bower, Brackett, Bramley, Cline, Connolly, Cox, Derran, Gayman, Goard, Harnden, Hater, Hoyde, Hull, Hunter, Jones, Kempe, Ludwick, MacBroom, McCauley, McClintock, Magee, Melber, Monte, Niles, O'Neill, Otis, Payne, Piper, Powell, Ross, Rothe, Russell, Ruten, Schmidt, Scott, Smalley, Spelman, Vivers, Swain, Williams, Mason—Total, 49.

For Hanna—Allen, Arbenz, Armstrong, Ashford, Baldwin, Beatty, Bell, Bennett, Bossard, Bowman, Boxwell, Beck, Breckon, Chapman, Clark, Clifford, Davies, Droste, Dutton, Griffith of Clinton, Griffith of Union, Hinsdale, Howard, Johnson, Joyce, Kemper, Lane, Leaper, Leland, Love, McCormick, McCurdy, McKinnon, Manuel, McManch, Means, Morrow, Norris, Parker, Rankin of Clark, Rankin of Fayette, Redkey, Reynolds, Roberts, Shaw, Smith of Adams, Smith of Delaware, Snyder, Stewart of Clarke, Stewart of Mahoning, Stimpfle, Swingle, Taylor, Waddell. Total 56.

THE SENATE VOTE. The Senate vote resulted: Hanna, 17; McKisson, 19. For McKisson—Boersin, Burke, Cohen, Cromley, Decker, Doty, Finck, Harper, Jones, Kennon, Leet, Long, Miller, Mitchell, Nichols, Pugh, Robertson, Schaefer, Valentine. Total, 19.

For Hanna—Alexander, Blake, Cable, Carpenter, Randall, Dodge, Cayfield, Lutz, May, Plummer, Riley, Sheppard, Sullivan, Voight, Wightman, Williams, Wolcott. Total, 17.

HANNA'S QUICK MARCH TO VICTORY

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 11.—Both branches of the Legislature met at 10 a. m. and many regretted that admission by ticket had not been adopted. The crowd pressed in on the floor of both bodies and as the voters were prominent constituents they were not put out. In the Senate the bill to repeal the 60-year street railway franchise came up and it was postponed till to-morrow. This bill has been used against Senator Hanna in organizing the Legislature and in the Senatorial fight. It was stated soon after assembling that all Senators and Representatives were in their seats and both houses voted to ballot at 11 a. m. for Senator.

At 10:40 a. m. a call of the House was demanded so as to put all on record as being present. The doors were locked and the hall was very quiet. No business was transacted during the first hour of the session. The workers of both sides were busily engaged in the lobby. Senator Hanna, Mayor McKisson, Mr. Kurtz and other leaders kept up the contest at the hotels.

The call of the House showed that Representative Cramer, Democrat of Paulding County, was the only absentee and the Sergeant-at-Arms was dispatched for him. Mr. Cramer is very sick and his physician forbade his attendance, but Mr. Cramer requested to be carried to the hall of the House. On the first call Dutton of Morgan and Manuel of Montgomery did not respond, but were soon found in the lobby. Quite a large delegation went to the boarding house of Representative Cramer

AS THE ARTIST SEES THINGS.

President Harper of the Chicago University at the Twenty-first Convocation astounded his hearers by the statement, "Three Deaths From Starvation" had occurred among the students in attendance at the University in five years. He made other startling statements.

The artist seems to think that President Harper is only trying to arouse the lethargic philanthropy of hoggish Chicago, and takes a humorous view of the situation and the President's statements.

THE PASSING OF "BOSS FILLEY."

Signs of the Times as Read
by a Politician.

ZIEGENHEIN'S STAR ASCENDANT

SPLIT TO COME WHEN THE MUNICIPAL SPOILS ARE TO BE DIVIDED.

THE MAYOR SLOW, BUT SURE.

Some Facts Concerning the Municipal Election That Are Now Made Public—Maneuvers on Both Sides.

There is going to be a disintegration of the Filley cohorts. Adhesiveness due to greed for city jobs may postpone it for a time, but it is coming and the break between Filley and Ziegenhein is inevitable. Some Republican politicians predict that the "break" will not come until a year from this spring, when the mayor will make his appointments for the various heads of departments, but others predict it will come even sooner and is brewing every day because Filley and Ziegenhein cannot agree on the state of the new officers.

"I know," said a veteran politician, "that Filley and Ziegenhein are hobnobbing together a great deal. The Filley lieutenants are manipulating these public dromedary exhibitions. It is none of Ziegenhein's seeking."

"Ziegenhein is a much bigger man of affairs than most people think. He knows his strength and his native egotism is growing so fast that the common reputation that he wears a Filley collar as well as a Filley hat, is falling to him. Much more suave, complacent and persuasive in manner and address than Filley, with a confidence in his own ability and luck, he does not see why he should not be the real boss Ziegenhein does not believe in making enemies and build it up."

"Filley knows his career is closed. Ziegenhein believes this is really just a joke. He is a man of ambition, yet while he is not afraid to fight he doesn't want to fight. He believes in placation and persuasion. Filley believes in punishment and destruction, if he can't have his way."

"Ziegenhein distrusts Filley. He has reason to, but Filley thinks Ziegenhein does not suspect him, and that Ziegenhein has gone on in his smiling way ignorant of the plans of Filley to throw him when he was moving heaven and earth for the mayoral nomination. That was a dark plot planned by Filley, and he will say that every word of this is a lie, because he thinks that Ziegenhein never caught on to his game, but Ziegenhein has been about as quiet as a cat in the bud so quietly and effectively that it made Filley shudder and wish he had never dreamed of such a thing."

"It came about in this way: Filley was frightened by the hue and cry against Ziegenhein. He was courting the people, and all the respectable element he could reach, but the fight became so furious he was in despair, and concluded that he could hoodoo the Civic Federation and all the silk stockings with Charles Nagel. He passed the word quietly along the line and took an inventory of Republican preferences in a number of wards. If the tide could be turned to Nagel it was to be done. Ziegenhein had faithful friends both in and out of the Filley camp. He was advised of the plot and he decided to destroy him in the primaries, and finally in the convention."

"Ziegenhein said never a word or gave the least hint that he was aware of Filley's double game, but he and his faithful friends did some of the fiercest hustling ever done in an unostentatious way in a local campaign."

"This Filley-Ziegenhein fight, carried on in the dark, continued right up to the primaries. Ziegenhein never said a word, but he was the time when his real, friendly wanted him to tell Filley to stand down, or he would eliminate him. It was insisted that as Ziegenhein had won a well nigh unanimous nomination he should declare himself the ruling boss and Filley would help him he could do so, or let it slide."

"But Ziegenhein was too diplomatic to take such a forward step. The election was to be held. He would need Filley's strength he could bring him. Filley has his slate for the new appointments, men he would reward despite their fitness and public protest. Ziegenhein is looking to the future, and he is going to shape his appointments accordingly. He is going to pick out men like he did Capt. Huebner for the police and Filley's choice to succeed 'Butch' Wagner. The gang besieged the Mayor for various candidates, and he finally named Huebner, who he knew, would fill the bill."

"The House of Delegates openly revolted and declared that the Filley faction was growing in the Council, and it is pertinent to note that the men who are the closest friends of the Mayor have in the Council, while none of them ever darken the door of the Mosque."

"Ziegenhein is anxious for the Charter amendments to be passed. Filley is the deft hand that is holding them back. Carroll, who is president of the Council, amendments, along with Gaus, Heckel and three more, are all daily visitors at the Mayor's office. Time and time again Filley has been assured Ziegenhein would have none of Filley, and it was for him to break with him and become the head of the Filley faction."

"Filley has been 'rolled' by McKinley and he still has a little power left, but the 'roll' he will get from Ziegenhein will finish him for all time to come."
